

Dear Valued Client,

Regarding the Notice on the Update for the Alpha i Mobile Trading Application

Thank you for your continuous support of our company.

We will release the latest versions of the Alpha i mobile trading app, web version, and PC desktop version on 26 October 2024. Customers must update Alpha i to the latest version on or after 26 October 2024, to conduct transactions normally. The latest Alpha i download link will be published on the official website of CFSG at noon on 26 October 2024. At that time, customers can access the following link to view the download address: <https://www.cfsg.com.hk/eng/Security/TradingPlatform>. Users who have already downloaded Alpha i can update to the latest version directly on the App Store or Google Play Store on the release date.

Notes:

1. When logging in to the trading platform, only the 6-digit account number needs to be entered. For example, for PN012345, enter 012345 only.
2. If a customer has both MN and PN accounts, the first login will default to the MN account. To log in to the PN account, customers can switch to the cash account PN under "Margin Account" on the "Account" page after logging in.
